Unusual offences are id be referred to the superintendent, with whom rests the power of suspension or expulsion, and he alone can readmit pupils who have been expelled. Children having contagious diseases, or belonging to families in which there is such disease, will not be admited to the schools. All children attending must be vaccinated. Parents and guardians are not allowed to interfere with the discipline of the schools, and will be held responsible for damage done to school buildings furniture, shrubbery, etc. The principals have authority over the pupils during the time necessary for them to pass to and from the school. The superintendent was authorized to have twenty-five hundred copies of the rules The committee on building reported in favor of sinking a well for the use of the Island school. The re-port was amended so that the cost should not exceed $250, and adopted.

ANOTHER UNION STORE.—There seems nechanics and workingmen of this city to form associations for the purpose of establishing stores, in which they can obtain their family supplies at the low-est possible rates. This determination as been brought about by the high prices which they are compelled to pay for all the necessaries of life. It is believed that, with proper management, associations of this character will not only have the effect of cheapening the articles consumed, but will also afford a fair return upon the amount invested. As they propose to raise a sufficient amount of capital to make their purchases for cash, and from first hands there can be no doubt of their success, reasonable degree of experience and intelligence is employed in the management of the business. On Saturday night a preliminary meeting was held at the Guard's Hose was large, and all those present were favorable to the enterprise, and ex-pressed their willingness to subscribe the capital stock, provided the association should be organized upon a sa-tisfactory basis. Those present desired that the dry goods and grocery busi-ness should be combined, and further determined that when the determined that when fifteen thousand dollars has been subscribed, they will form themselves into a permaneut organization. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions. The Saturday evening. From the spirit of the meeting and the interest manifested, we have no doubt of the success of the enterprise. It is believed that thirty thousand dollars can easily be raised for the purpose indicated.

CAUGHT HIM. -On Saturday morning two citizens started at an early hour for the second ward market. As they were passing up Monroe street, they discovered a man endeavoring to effect an entrance into the clothing store of T. Lakin & Co., by climbing up to a window in the second story. very naturally supposed that the individual was about to rob the establishment. They at once made a skillful disposition of their forces, and succeeded in capturing the supposed bur-glar. The prisoner assured them that he was an employee of the establishment and entirely criminal purpose. This tale, however, could not be relied upon under such suspicious circumstances, and the pris-oner was marched to the city prison and confined in one of the cells unti the facts could be ascertained. It turned out that he was one of the tailors employed by the firm, and hav-ing a job on hand which he wished to finish before noon, he had risen early and went down to the store to com mence work. It not being open, he concluded to gain admittance in the manner stated. His friends being informed of his situation, at once ex plained and had him released. He will hereafter endeavor to secure an entrance to the premises in a less suspicious manner. The citizens who made the arrest, deserve great praise for the skill and promptness displayed on their part on their part.

BURGLARY.—On Friday night the tore of Mr. Wick, located on the Hempfield railroad between Triadelphia and the Point Mills, was entered by burg-lars and robbed of goods to the amount of two hundred dollars. They effected an entrance by boring through the back door with an augur until an opening had been made through which a man's hand could be passed, enabling him to remove the bar which secured the door. It is supposed that the robbery was committed by the same parties who made an attempt the night before to rob a store in Clayaville, Pa. As yet there has been no clue obtained of the perpe-

Accident—On Saturday afternoon while passing up Fifth street, Miss Annale Lancaster was violently thrown from her horse, and it is feared seriously injured. The accident occurred in the immediate vicinity of the State House. The lady was carried into the residence of Governor Persedence. residence of Governor Boreman, where she received every attention. Medical assistance was procured. She was af-terwards removed to the residence of her Grandfather, Mr. Wm. Holliday, of North Wheeling. At last accounts she was still bleeding at the ears and mouth, showing that she had received internal injury.
